

Hill Country Film Festival and Fritztown Cinema to Screen WHEN WE WERE ALL BRONCOS

Monthly Series Features Free Screening of Texas Documentary

AUSTIN, Texas (Sept. 26, 2014) – The Hill Country Film Festival (HCFF), an annual independent film event in Fredericksburg, Texas, held in late April, and presented by the Hill Country Film Society, has partnered with Fritztown Cinema to promote the art of independent filmmaking through a monthly “indie screening series” in Fredericksburg.

WHAT: The ninth film presentation of the collaborative efforts of HCFF and Fritztown Cinema is WHEN WE WERE ALL BRONCOS (d. David Barrow, U.S., 2013). Director David Barrow returns to his hometown to recall the period of desegregation as experienced by the people he grew up with. Through interviews with townspeople, his fellow students at Denton High School, and his teammates on the 1972 Bronco football team, he tries to understand how Denton emerged from the dark days of Jim Crow and segregation to become the diverse and dynamic center for education, the arts, and Texas culture it is today. Barrow will be in attendance for Q&A following the screening.

Information on upcoming indie screenings at Fritztown Cinema can be found on HCFF Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/events/317827898395505/>.

WHEN: Wednesday, October 8, at 6:30 p.m.

WHERE: Fritztown Cinema, 2254 Highway 87 South, Fredericksburg, Texas.

COST: Free; donations will be accepted benefiting the Hill Country Film Society and Fritztown Cinema.

About Hill Country Film Festival

Set in Fredericksburg, Texas, the Hill Country Film Festival (HCFF) is the vision of its director Chad Mathews, an actor, screenwriter, producer, and native Texan. Having participated in the film festival circuit, Mathews came to love the camaraderie and shared respect of those who are committed to the art of independent filmmaking. HCFF was created to celebrate and showcase filmmakers from Texas and around the world and is annually presented by the Hill Country Film Society, a 501(c)3 non-profit organization.
