

Hill Country Film Festival and Fritztown Cinema to Screen FAVOR

Monthly Series Features Free Screening of Indie Feature Film

AUSTIN, Texas (March 6, 2015) – The Hill Country Film Festival (HCFF), an annual independent film event in Fredericksburg, Texas (April 30 – May 3, 2015) and presented by the Hill Country Film Society, has partnered with Fritztown Cinema to promote the art of independent filmmaking through a monthly “indie screening series” in Fredericksburg.

WHAT: The 12th film presentation of the collaborative efforts of HCFF and Fritztown Cinema is FAVOR (d. Paul Osborne, USA, 2013). This feature is more than a simple crime thriller – it’s an examination of the dark side of friendship.

Kip's perfect life is put in jeopardy when the waitress with whom he's having a casual fling is accidentally killed in their motel room. Desperate, he turns to childhood friend and loser, Marvin, to help get rid of the body. Marvin agrees which begins the unraveling of their friendship and ultimately leads both to murderous acts they never thought themselves capable of.

Information on upcoming indie screenings at Fritztown Cinema can be found on HCFF Event page: <http://www.hillcountryff.com/home/events/>.

WHEN: Wednesday, March 25, at 6:30 p.m.

WHERE: Fritztown Cinema, 2254 Highway 87 South, Fredericksburg, Texas.

COST: Free; donations will be accepted benefiting the Hill Country Film Society and Fritztown Cinema.

About Hill Country Film Festival

Set in Fredericksburg, Texas, the Hill Country Film Festival (HCFF) is the vision of its director Chad Mathews, an actor, screenwriter, producer, and native Texan. Having participated in the film festival circuit, Mathews came to love the camaraderie and shared respect of those who are committed to the art of independent filmmaking. HCFF was created to celebrate and showcase filmmakers from Texas and around the world and is annually presented by the Hill Country Film Society, a 501(c)3 non-profit organization. For more information visit: www.hillcountryff.com.
