Hill Country Film Festival and Fritztown Cinema to Screen SUNNY IN THE DARK

Monthly Series Features Free Screening of Texas Made Feature Film

AUSTIN, Texas (Feb. 24, 2016) – The Hill Country Film Festival (HCFF), an annual independent film event in Fredericksburg, Texas, to be held April 28 – May 1, 2016, and presented by the Hill Country Film Society, has partnered with Fritztown Cinema to screen the Texas made narrative feature SUNNY IN THE DARK (d. Courtney Ware, U.S., 2016) as part of the monthly “indie screening series” in Fredericksburg.

WHAT: SUNNY IN THE DARK is about Jonah Bock, a therapist with a marriage and family counseling clinic. When Jonah moves into a new loft he’s wait listed for over two years, he quickly senses he may have finally found the ultimate sanctuary to shield him from the pain of the world.

What Jonah doesn’t realize is that homeless Sunny lives in the dark crawl space above his place. In Jonah’s case, she sleeps in the crawl space at night, and when highly regimented Jonah leaves for the office each day, she drops down and lives in Jonah’s space, careful to leave no trace of her existence.

SUNNY IN THE DARK made its Texas Premiere at the 2015 Hill Country Film Festival and actress Hannah Ward won Best Actress for her portrayal of Sunny.

Information on upcoming indie screenings at Fritztown Cinema can be found on HCFF Event page at: <http://www.hillcountryff.com/home/events/>.

About Hill Country Film Festival

Set in Fredericksburg, Texas, the Hill Country Film Festival (HCFF) is the vision of its director Chad Mathews, an actor, screenwriter, producer and native Texan. Having participated in the film festival circuit, Mathews came to love the camaraderie and shared respect of those who are committed to the art of independent filmmaking. HCFF was created to celebrate and showcase filmmakers from Texas and around the world and is annually presented by the Hill Country Film Society, a 501(c)3 non-profit organization. For more information, visit www.hillcountryff.com.

About Hill Country Film Society

The Hill Country Film Festival, created in 2010 to celebrate and showcase filmmakers from Texas and around the world, quickly evolved into a non-profit organization with a broader vision. The Hill Country Film Society not only hosts the annual festival, but provides year-round independent film programming in the Texas Hill Country as well as education in the art of independent film. Its mission is to encourage discovery through visual storytelling and create experiences that educate, inspire and engage. The society relies on its sponsors and members to help achieve its mission and ensure the future of film as part of a vibrant, creative culture.
