Trish Avery is the SAG-AFTRA DFW Local Executive Director, representing over 2500 professional performers in Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas.

Trish began her media career 30+ years ago as a live theater performer while working in commercials, corporate film and radio. As Director of Strategic Alliances for eWomenNetwork, Trish produced and hosted a weekly radio show highlighting the unique challenges of small businesses in changing markets.

Trish joined the SAG-AFTRA staff in 2007 and is a founding member of the Texas Motion Picture Alliance where she serves on the TXMPA Board of Directors. In 2012, Trish was awarded the Topaz Advocacy Award from Women In Film Dallas and is a member of numerous media organizations across the state. Trish is dedicated to the vision, tenacity and talent of Texas media professionals and is confident in our continuing growth and expanding markets.
