

Hill Country Film Festival and Fritztown Cinema to Screen JANEY MAKES A PLAY

Monthly Series Features Free Screening of Documentary Film

AUSTIN, Texas (June 29, 2016) – The Hill Country Film Festival (HCFF), an annual independent film event in Fredericksburg, Texas, to be held April 27 – 30, 2017, and presented by the Hill Country Film Society, has partnered with Fritztown Cinema to screen the documentary JANEY MAKES A PLAY (d. Jared Callahan, U.S., 2015) as part of the monthly “indie film series” in Fredericksburg.

WHAT: JANEY MAKES A PLAY is a documentary film that follows a 90-year-old woman as she writes and directs her latest original, socially relevant community theater production for her small town. Experience the creative process unfold with a cast of colorful townspeople, as they engage with the arts amidst a local economy devastated by the recent recession. All the storylines collide on opening night as the town rallies together to tell their own story on stage.

Information on upcoming indie screenings at Fritztown Cinema can be found on HCFF Event page at: <http://www.hillcountryff.com/home/events/>. The film is also available on iTunes.

WHEN: Sunday, July 10, at 5:30 p.m.

WHERE: Fritztown Cinema, 2254 Highway 87 South, Fredericksburg, Texas.

COST: Free; donations will be accepted benefiting the Hill Country Film Society and Fritztown Cinema. Seating will be first come, first serve. Doors will open at 5:15 p.m.

About Hill Country Film Festival

Set in Fredericksburg, Texas, the Hill Country Film Festival (HCFF) is the vision of its director Chad Mathews, an actor, screenwriter, producer and native Texan. Having participated in the film festival circuit, Mathews came to love the camaraderie and shared respect of those who are committed to the art of independent filmmaking. HCFF was created to celebrate and showcase filmmakers from Texas and around the world and is annually presented by the Hill Country Film Society, a 501(c)3 non-profit organization. For more information, visit www.hillcountryff.com.

About Hill Country Film Society

The Hill Country Film Festival, created in 2010 to celebrate and showcase filmmakers from Texas and around the world, quickly evolved into a non-profit organization with a broader vision. The Hill Country Film Society not only hosts the annual festival, but provides year-round independent film programming in the Texas Hill Country as well as education in the art of independent film. Its mission is to encourage discovery through visual storytelling and create experiences that educate, inspire and engage. The society relies on its sponsors and members to help achieve its mission and ensure the future of film as part of a vibrant, creative culture.
