

Hill Country Film Festival and Fritztown Cinema to Screen BUCK WILD

Monthly Series Features Free Screening of Texas-made Feature Film

AUSTIN, Texas (Oct. 13, 2016) – The Hill Country Film Festival (HCFF), an annual independent film event in Fredericksburg, Texas, to be held April 27 – 30, 2017, and presented by the Hill Country Film Society, has partnered with Fritztown Cinema to host a screening of the Texas-made feature film BUCK WILD as part of its monthly “indie film series” in Fredericksburg.

WHAT: Buck Wild, a Texas-made feature, blends horror and comedy. On a classic boys’ hunting trip with his two best friends and cousin from New York, Craig Thompson can’t decide what is more unbelievable — rumors that his fiancé and best-man-to-be have been cavorting behind his back, or that a rapidly-spreading chupacabra virus is turning the local townspeople into a hungry zombie mob headed their way.

After shooting the ranch owner, drugging the game warden and narrowly escaping an insidious hillbilly gang shepherded by British magnifico Billy Ray, the boys are forced to get creative in order to survive the zombie melee. Buck Wild turns the buddy comedy upside down while tearing zombies inside out in this tongue-in-cheek adventure through south Texas. Buck Wild was co-written and stars Fredericksburg native, Matthew Albrecht. The film won “Cinema Dulce – Best of Fest Award” at the 2013 Hill Country Film Festival.

Door prizes courtesy of Fritztown Cinema and the Hill Country Film Society will be raffled to guests attending in costume.

Information on upcoming indie screenings at Fritztown Cinema can be found on HCFF Event page at: <http://www.hillcountryff.com/home/events/>.

About Hill Country Film Festival

Set in Fredericksburg, Texas, the Hill Country Film Festival (HCFF) is the vision of its director Chad Mathews, an actor, screenwriter, producer and native Texan. Having participated in the film festival circuit, Mathews came to love the camaraderie and shared respect of those who are committed to the art of independent filmmaking. HCFF was created to celebrate and showcase filmmakers from Texas and around the world and is annually presented by the Hill Country Film Society. For more information, visit www.hillcountryff.com.

About Hill Country Film Society

The Hill Country Film Festival, created in 2010 to celebrate and showcase filmmakers from Texas and around the world, quickly evolved into a non-profit organization with a broader vision. The Hill Country Film Society not only hosts the annual festival, but provides year-round independent film programming in the Texas Hill Country as well as education in the art of independent film. Its mission is to encourage discovery through visual storytelling and create experiences that educate, inspire and engage. The society, a 501(c)3 non-profit organization, relies on its sponsors and members to help achieve its mission and ensure the future of film as part of a vibrant, creative culture.
