

Hill Country Film Festival and Fritztown Cinema To Screen THE OTHER KIDS

Monthly Series Features Free Screening of Feature Film

AUSTIN, Texas (Feb. 21, 2017) – The Hill Country Film Festival (HCFF), an annual independent film event in Fredericksburg, Texas, to be held April 27 – 30, 2017, and presented by the Hill Country Film Society, has partnered with Fritztown Cinema to host a screening of THE OTHER KIDS (d. Chris Brown) as part of its monthly “indie film series” in Fredericksburg.

WHAT: A bold and original hybrid of fiction and non-fiction, THE OTHER KIDS is a raw, intimate look into the struggles of six small-town teenagers on the verge of high school graduation. Director Chris Brown, familiar with both fiction and documentary filmmaking, combined aspects of both forms to create a unique film experience where these teens share their own gripping, personal stories. “We used raw materials from real life to create a fictional universe. Unlike my previous films, THE OTHER KIDS was made without a script, without a conventional crew and without professional actors,” Brown shared.

The cast was composed entirely of real teens who based their characters and their stories on elements and aspects of their own lives and struggles. Variety describes the film as “refreshingly well-observed.”
