

Hill Country Film Festival and Fritztown Cinema To Screen THE LAST TREASURE HUNT

Monthly Series Features Free Screening of Independent Feature Film

AUSTIN, Texas (March 22, 2017) – The Hill Country Film Festival (HCFF), an annual independent film event in Fredericksburg, Texas, to be held April 27 – 30, 2017, and presented by the Hill Country Film Society, has partnered with Fritztown Cinema to host a screening of the feature film THE LAST TREASURE HUNT (d. Patrick Biesemans, U.S.) as part of its monthly “indie film series” in Fredericksburg.

WHAT: THE LAST TREASURE HUNT is a heartfelt story of an estranged brother and sister who must put aside their differences to solve an elaborate treasure hunt, left for them in the will of their eccentric father.

Oliver and Lucy Sinclair were raised by an unconventional single father with a penchant for treasure hunts meant to entertain and inspire his children. When their father unexpectedly passes away, the siblings return home to find that instead of a traditional will, he’s left them a final call to adventure from beyond the grave – one last treasure hunt.

THE LAST TREASURE HUNT is a touching tale of siblinghood that captures the struggle and the joy of family, and paints an unforgettable picture of love, loss and forgiveness.

Information on upcoming indie screenings at Fritztown Cinema can be found on HCFF Event page at: <http://www.hillcountryff.com/home/events/>.

WHEN: Sunday, April 2, at 5:30 p.m.

WHERE: Fritztown Cinema, 2254 Highway 87 South, Fredericksburg, Texas.

COST: Free; donations will be accepted benefiting the Hill Country Film Society and Fritztown Cinema. Seating will be first come, first serve. Doors will open at 5:15 p.m.

About Hill Country Film Festival

Set in Fredericksburg, Texas, the Hill Country Film Festival (HCFF) is the vision of its director Chad Mathews, an actor, screenwriter, producer and native Texan. Having participated in the film festival circuit, Mathews came to love the camaraderie and shared respect of those who are committed to the art of independent filmmaking. HCFF was created to celebrate and showcase filmmakers from Texas and around the world and is annually presented by the Hill Country Film Society, a 501(c)3 non-profit organization. For more information, visit www.hillcountryff.com.

About Hill Country Film Society

The Hill Country Film Festival, created in 2010 to celebrate and showcase filmmakers from Texas and around the world, quickly evolved into a non-profit organization with a broader vision. The Hill Country Film Society not only hosts the annual festival, but provides year-round independent film programming in the Texas Hill Country as well as education in the art of independent film. Its mission is to encourage discovery through visual storytelling and create experiences that educate, inspire and engage. The society relies on its sponsors and members to help achieve its mission and ensure the future of film as part of a vibrant, creative culture.
