

Hill Country Film Society to Host Third Annual Film Camp

AUSTIN, Texas (May 26, 2017) – The Hill Country Film Festival (HCFF), an annual independent film event in Fredericksburg, Texas (April 26 – 29, 2018) and presented by the Hill Country Film Society, has partnered with the Fredericksburg Independent School District Community Education program to host a youth film camp.

WHAT: Film Camp will be for youth going into 8th through 12th grades and will be taught by HCFF team members. Campers will learn story structure, character development and fundamental elements of visual storytelling. Attendees will experience the ins and outs of a film set and learn basic editing as they make a short film.

Campers will also be invited to attend a screening of their completed film at Fritztown Cinema on Saturday, June 17, at 10:00 a.m.

WHEN: June 12-15, 2017, from 9 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

WHERE: Fredericksburg High School, 1107 S State Hwy 16, Fredericksburg, Texas.

COST: $99 per camper. Payment can be made by check, cash or credit card. To register, call (830) 997-7182 or visit the HCFF event page to download and mail a completed registration form to address listed: <http://www.hillcountryff.com/home/events/>.

MISC: Campers are asked to bring a sack lunch each day. Snacks will be provided.

About Hill Country Film Festival

Set in Fredericksburg, Texas, the Hill Country Film Festival (HCFF) is the vision of its director Chad Mathews, an actor, screenwriter, producer, and native Texan. Having participated in the film festival circuit, Mathews came to love the camaraderie and shared respect of those who are committed to the art of independent filmmaking. HCFF was created to celebrate and showcase filmmakers from Texas and around the world and is annually presented by the Hill Country Film Society, a 501(c)3 non-profit organization.
