

Hill Country Film Society and Fritztown Cinema to Screen WAR HORSE

Screening Presented as Part of WWI Centennial Commemoration and Veterans Day Parade Events

AUSTIN, Texas (Oct. 28, 2018) – The Hill Country Film Society, a non-profit organization committed to providing year-round independent film programming and education in the Texas Hill Country and host to the annual Hill Country Film Festival in Fredericksburg, Texas, on April 25-28, 2019, has partnered with Fritztown Cinema to host a screening of WAR HORSE (d. Steven Spielberg, U.S.) as part of Indie Film Series.

WHAT: WAR HORSE is a 2011 war drama film directed and co-produced by Steven Spielberg from a screenplay written by Lee Hall and Richard Curtis and based on Michael Morpurgo's 1982 novel of the same name and its 2007 play adaptation.

Set before and during World War I, the film tells of the journey of Joey, a horse raised by British teenager Albert, as he is bought by the British Army, leading him to encounter numerous individuals and owners throughout Europe, all the while experiencing the tragedies of the war happening around him.

This screening is part of the Fredericksburg Texas World War I Centennial Commemoration Veterans Day events and WWI posters will be on display at the theater for the screening.
